

January 2006
Healing Holograms Newsletter

I really feel that January of this year is about setting the foundations for the next five years. So I have been doing a lot of inner work on clearing and releasing the old and bringing in new upgrades. I was amazed by how much clearer I felt when I got rid of clutter and old stuff I had been hanging on to for a while. I also find myself releasing old spiritual teachings and healing modalities that I can no longer do and all of the associated books, tapes, cds, dvds, etc.

It is so interesting living in the eternal moment. I never know what the days will hold. Usually I am in great bliss and joy but sometimes the planetary energy is so wild that every time I venture out of the sanctuary of my home I get diverted into the grounds of anger and unhappiness that are so prevalent in the mass consciousness.

This is all very common for a world that is undergoing the planetary ascension process. As the light intensifies on the planet, it will begin to expose all that is not light and there is a lot of not light stuff in the world. All part of the cleansing and reconfiguration of the planet.

It is important to stay as much in your own energy as possible and not to get caught up as much as you can from the third dimensional dramas. These dramas will continue and increase in intensity for they are wake up calls. It is sort of how I came out as a gay man years ago – the pain of being in the closet was so strong that I could not be worst off by coming out.

The things I do on a daily basis to help not get sucked into the assorted dramas of this world are hanging out in nature, walking by the beach and taking lots of sea salt and Epsom salt baths.

Eckhart Tolle's A New Earth is about the only spiritual book I read and it is a great blessing for mass consciousness since it exposes the ego-based programming underlying the drama. Almost of the Practical Mastery profile purges I downloaded are really about clearing the ego mind. The Transcending the Ego Mastery Sequences are another great resource.

Hanging out in the Eternal, Indestructible Realms of Consciousness

I find increasingly that I hang out in the eternal realms of consciousness way above the fifth dimension. Most of the inner work I have done over the years has come from the temporal realms of consciousness where you work and work and transmute and clear and forgive and work and work and often do not feel that you progress at all.

In 2005 I faced many challenges to become impeccable in my commitment to living in clarity and being a sovereign being. Much of that year was really an initiation so that I could begin to work in the indestructible realms of consciousness. Since I made this shift, I am amazed at how smoothly life flows and how my vibration constantly increases.

All of the work and sessions I do has shifted as well in just the last week. The Practical Mastery™ and Mastery Sequences have upgraded as well to include the frequencies from the eternal, indestructible realms of consciousness. It is so amazing! I feel so blessed to be present during this most amazing lifetime on the planet.

Angelic Portals of Grace

"Greetings blessed ones. This is Metatron and I am delighted to announce that beloved Gaia has passed through some important gateways in its ascension process. Love and Light are greatly amplified on the planet now for all who choose this - and it is a choice. We can now interact more deeply with humanity and the planet and we are gifting these angelic portals of grace to assist all sentient beings on their path of mastery. Remember dear ones to live from the heart at all times for this is where the blessings flow and where the action is..." Metatron, January 3, 2006.

The angelic portals of grace are for abundance and manifestation, healing, enlightenment, world service and opening your heart. The link to these pages is located at:

Practical Mastery™ Practitioner Training

I would like to begin by congratulating the seven people who have stepped up to the plate to become Practical Mastery™ Practitioners (I am not including the names because I did not get their permission to do so).

I asked a gifted channel and healer friend of mine to ask the Mother of All Creation for an overview to describe the importance of Practical Mastery™. This is what she said about this:

"You are about to embark on a most amazing journey that will allow you to soar to greater heights of GOD and to greater heights of activating the GOD within you all. If you are drawn to learn this work then you are ready to claim your place among the masters that walk this earth in your most sacred mission for the Divine. We rejoice in your choice to shine!

Practical Mastery™ is not so much a healing modality but a set of tools for activating and accessing the divine within you. Each person's experience with Practical Mastery™ will be as unique as the individual him/herself. These tools will propel you into greater levels of your mastery that no one healing modality on this planet can offer at this time. These tools are a special dispensation offered to those masters here on the planet that are ready to soar to their next levels of their mastery that are beyond the teachings of any one healing modality available on this planet as of November 2005.

For those who are drawn to this work, it is time to remember your greatness and to bring that greatness forward in a world that is seeking to know greater levels of GOD. These tools will assist you to be the emissaries of GOD to bring that light and love through to a world that cries out to know GOD and all that embraces GOD. We are asking you to be the beacons of truth to shine onto this world. By aligning with this "truth" comes great responsibility: Responsibility to self, to GOD and to others and to be aligned to the highest principles of divine truth, love and light in all that you do for self and others.

“Practical Mastery™” is designed to assist one in being “impeccable” in healing your self and others, as Bill Austin, the founder of Practical Mastery likes to say. Practical Mastery™ is designed to allow individuals to receive great levels of healing that is 100% aligned to the Creator. You can not manipulate another with this healing work or cause any imbalances in someone if they are not ready for the magnitude of this work. These powerful tools have been created to be given and received in simplicity so that all individuals can be propelled into greater levels of mastery with ease and grace, all honoring their divine timing.

The Practical Mastery™ tools are designed to ignite the mastery profiles in each and every one of you to do what you came here to do- to be in service to the Creator and his Great Plan. Practical Mastery™ is your wake up call, so to speak, and you are answering that call by saying that you are ready to embrace your mission to assist all sentient beings and this planet to ascend. We support you in this endeavor always and we are always here to assist.”

If you are feeling drawn to this path of world service, now is the time to sign up – the fee for this will increase to $900 on February 1 (the current price is $750). Click on the link below for more information about this training program.
